

FREE
Donations
welcome

Welcome to Provand's Lordship, the oldest house in Glasgow, built in 1471. Displays at Provand's Lordship celebrate the history of the building and the surrounding area and include some Scottish portraits and furniture.

Behind the house you can visit the St Nicholas Garden, with its intriguing sculptures known as the Tontine Heads.

Provand's Lordship runs a series of events throughout the year. For details, ask one of the Gallery Assistants.

Highlights

The kitchen

Scottish furniture

Historic architecture

Royal portraits

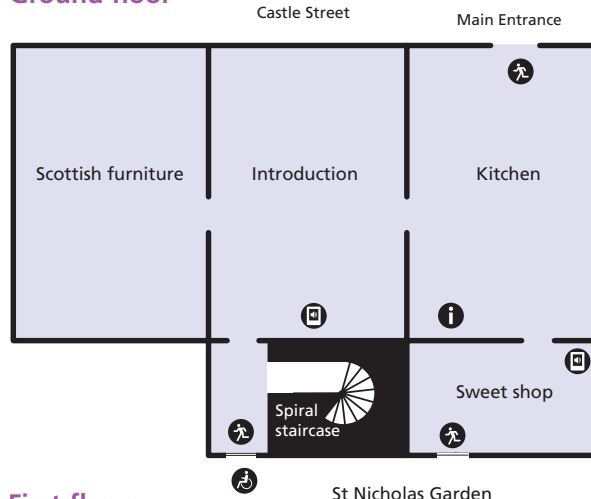

Cuthbert Simson's room

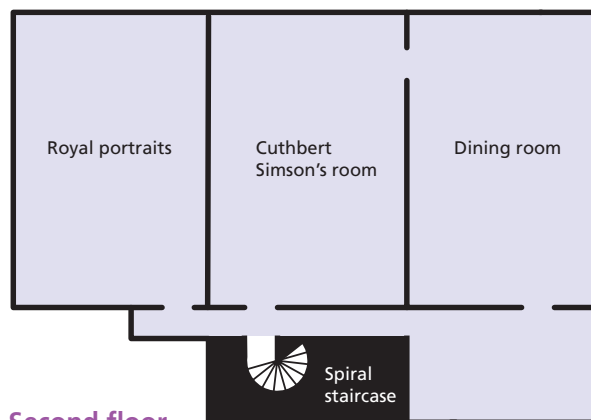

Cloisters and
the St Nicholas
Garden

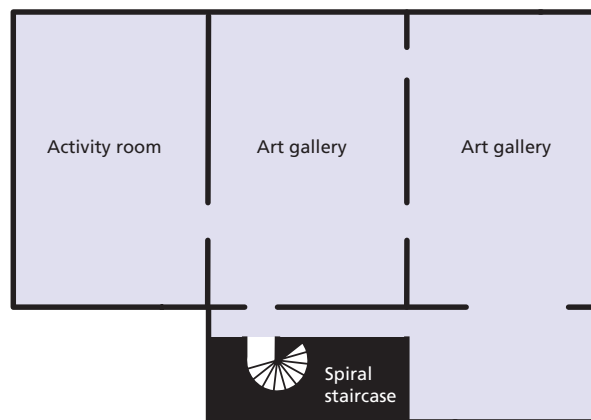

Ground floor

First floor

Second floor

Visitor information

3 Castle Street, Glasgow G4 0RB

Phone 0141 276 1625

(The phone line is answered by staff at St Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art, the Glasgow Life Museums venue opposite Provand's Lordship.)

Opening hours

Open every day: Monday–Thursday and Saturday 10am–5pm, Friday and Sunday 11am–5pm.

Visiting by train

Provand's Lordship is 10 minutes' walk from High Street Station.

Visiting by bus

First Bus services 19, 19A, 38, 57 and 57A stop nearby.

Toilets and shop

There are toilets and a shop in St Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art – opposite Provand's Lordship and free to enter.

Prints and photographs of Provand's Lordship

Available from Glasgow Museums Photo Library, phone 0141 276 9452

<https://www.csgimages.org.uk>

www.glasgowlife.org.uk/museums

i Information – if you have any queries during your visit, please ask any of the Gallery Assistants.

♿ Wheelchair access to the ground floor of Provand's Lordship, reached via a gradual ramp around the St Nicholas Garden and through a historic door. For the door to be opened, please phone 0141 276 1625 (the line will be answered by staff at St Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art, the Glasgow Life Museums venue opposite Provand's Lordship, who will assist). Due to the age and nature of the building, there is no lift to the first and second floors, but two audio-visual displays on the ground floor show some of the upper rooms.

📺 Two short introductory films about Provand's Lordship.

🚪 Emergency exits.